WILLIAMS OPENS CAMPAIGN TO-DAY

He Will Deliver Address to Voters in Buckingham County.

HAS NINTH MORE THAN SHARE?

All Three Candidates Claim Advantage From King's Retirement.

Attorney-General Samuel W. Williams left yesterday afternoon for Buckingham County, where he will launch his campaign for re-election by making a speech to-day. His brother, Judge Martin Williams, of Giles Coun-Judge Martin Williams, of Giles County, is expected in Richmond to-day and will open campaign headquarters at Murphy's Hotel S. Gordon Cumming. Murphy's Hotel. S. Gordon Cumming, of Newport News, has already opened headquarters at that place, and John Garland Pollard, of Henrico County, has taken rooms in the American National Bank building for campaign purposes. The race may be said to be fairly on, therefore, and the predictions are for a hot ware from new until the are for a hot pace from now until the polls close on August 5. Speculation and comment contred yesterday around the retirement of Ployd W. having it all figured out to his own satisfaction that Mr. King's retirement would be a distinct aid to his own campaign. Rumers, apparently without any foundation, were in circulation that Mr. Cumming would also retire, leaving the fight to a straight machine man in Mr. Pollard, allowing them to fight it out on that issue alone. Full at Mr. Cumming's headquarters things did not look that way, and his supporters figure it out that between the two extremes the Hampton man.

What Ordinance Requires.

The ordinance in question requires the keeper of every public garage to signal the passing of every car in or out of his place when it passes over a sidewalk. out of his place when it passes over a sidewalk. Many complaints have been registered in recent months of automobiles dashing out of garages located on West Broad Street, giving garages to display a red flag over the entrance by day and a red light by night, indicating the entrance to a public garage, and previous to the passage of any car over the sidewalk, in or out of such garage, the driver ance was considered a most reasonon motorists, as all cars are already required to be equipped with a horn
